

COMMUNITY SUPPORT WORKERS AUCKLAND

Make a difference in the lives of people with a mental illness or disability by assisting them on their path to recovery; day-to-day support for clients in a "home like" environment.

Be part of a team that provides client focused support and assists individuals to achieve the highest possible level of autonomy and integration in the community. Richmond New Zealand is New Zealand's largest provider of mental health and community based support services.

We can offer you:

- Competitive remuneration
- Security and opportunities associated with being part of a leading national service provider
- Positions available across Auckland - North, South, East and West.

You will need:

- A relevant qualification such as the L4 National Certificate in Mental Health Support Work or
- A willingness to learn and study mental health support work in a supportive environment
- Life experience
- A full driver's licence.

If you feel you have the skills, experience, passion and drive to make a difference in the lives of our clients, and want to be part of a professional work environment and highly skilled team, then WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

Note for non-New Zealand Residents

To apply for the job above, you must be legally entitled to work in New Zealand and your application should confirm this. If you are unsure of your entitlement to work in New Zealand, we refer you to the website www.immigration.govt.nz
